

Afternoon Music 2011-2012 “...a Jewel of a Hall”

clockwise
from the top:
Karrin Allyson
Ed Howard
Judith Pearce
Mitchell Vines
Gerall Hieser
Evelyn Estava
Elaine Christy
Jessica Thompson
Bob Mann

Nov. 20th Jazz Singer/Pianist Karrin Allyson
Bob Mann, guitar
Ed Howard, bass

“... she’s simply endowed with an extraordinary mix of taste/talent/feel/finesse—all of which combine to produce a cozy assignation between listener and artist...you’re so entranced by the voice/the chart/the sidemen...that your appreciation for her musicianship is sometimes an afterthought.” Carol Comer, Jam (Jazz Ambassador Magazine) April-May 2011

Jan. 29th Elaine Christy, harp
Judith Pearce, flute
Jessica Thompson, viola

Harp virtuoso, Elaine Christy, flutist Judith Pearce—whom the New Yorker called “...a rare and beautiful performer”—and stellar violist, Jessica Thompson, play works by Debussy, Bax and Salzedo.

April 1st Evelyn Estava, violin
Gerall Hieser, cello
Mitchell Vines, piano

Mitchell Vines, cited for his “...sensitive playing” and his “virtuosity and bravura” (He’s also our artistic director) joins New Jersey musicians Estava and Hieser, playing trios by Haydn, Brahms and Turina.

3 Sundays at 4

Information
908-273-3245

The Unitarian Church in Summit
4 Waldron Avenue
Summit, NJ 07901
(corner Waldron & Springfield Aves.)
www.ucsummit.org